DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

1. Claims 1-9, 11-16 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 89/04842.

WO '842 teaches a granular starch composition which comprises at least one chemical, such as waxes and soaps, which can be used in oil fields. The starch may be an octenyl succinic starch (see claims and page 6).

2. Claims 1-5, 8, 9, 11-13, 17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Fanta et al. (6461999 B1).

Fanta teaches a granular starch composition which is used in well treatment, and which comprises a chemical such as a lubricant, which is made by the same process (see examples).

3. Claims 10 and 19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Applicant's amendment and arguments are deemed persuasive with respect to the rejections under 35 USC 112. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are not deemed persuasive with respect to the rejections under 35 USC 102. Applicant has argued that waxes and soaps are not oil field chemicals. Official notice is taken of the following patents US 6,279,656 (see abstract), US 5,710,108, US (see abstract, whole document), US 4,614,599 (see claim 1), US 4,481,121 (see claim 1), US 4,192,753 (see abstract), US 4,045,360 (see abstract), US 3,989,632 (see abstract) and US 3,601,194 (see abstract). These patents all teach the use of wax or soaps as oil field chemicals, which is contrary to applicants assertion, and one of ordinary skill in the art would realize that wax and soap are oil field chemicals.

Applicants arguments with respect to Fanta are not considered persuasive, since the examples of Fanta, such as at column 11, lines 55-64, clearly teaches particulate starch containing the lubricant. The rejections are thus maintained.

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
